

AUTO AND ANIMAL PARADES TO BOOM CONEY MARDI GRAS

Novel Advertising Feature
Will Surprise Manhattan and Brooklyn.

KING ELECTION LIVELY.

Phil Jolly Regains Lead, with Luna Park "Dark Horse" Still Under Cover.

WHO WILL BE QUEEN?

Evening World Balloons Accepted in Many Places as Admission Tickets This Week.

HOW THE VOTE NOW STANDS IN CHOICE OF KING.

Hill Jolly	10,072
Herman Raub	10,002
Fernand Akaou	6,000
Clara Belmont	3,408
Joe Hauer	3,000
W. H. Reynolds	2,652
John	2,488
H. A. Bradwell	1,788
Dennis Sullivan	1,178
Val. Schmidt	1,131
K. F. Sutherland	603
Geo. C. Tilson	411
J. F. Kelly	280
J. H. Nordhoff	200
G. Hardin	173
E. Gillman	157
E. W. Clayton	132
Fred. Thompson	115
J. Stebbins	112
Wm. Bissell	110
P. Love	103
C. Fischwege	100
P. Hoffman	100
A. Kleinert	100
J. Lehrkranz	100
Jake Rapport	100
SEE BALLOT ON PAGE 2.

The carnival spirit has taken firm hold upon every one in Coney Island, and everybody is doing his big or little best to push it to success. There will be a parade of automobiles through the streets of Greater New York some day this week or next, bearing flaunting announcements of the great Mardi Gras carnival, to begin Monday, Sept. 17, and run the whole week. Every motor car owned in Coney Island will be in that parade. Another novel advertising feature under consideration is a parade of animals from Bostock's show for Manhattan and Brooklyn.

The voting contest for the choice of King Carnival is exciting the interest of all Coney Islanders, and the amusement purveyors at America's largest, cleanest and most complete play-place are presenting many novel schemes to stimulate the voting and make the election of a King of the week's merrymaking more exciting, more uncertain and an election which will be truly popular and not to be won by "the man with the biggest barrel."

Ballet in Evening World. The official ballet is printed in The Evening World, and the only way anyone can vote for his or her favorite candidate for the crown is by cutting the ballot from The Evening World and casting it in one of the ballot boxes, the locations of which are given in the paper. They are to be found in all the branch offices of The World, and at fifty other places in the five boroughs, and there is a ballot box at every first-class resort on Coney Island.

To stimulate the voting many of the amusement purveyors of Coney Island have offered to accept Evening World ballots for admission to their attractions, and it is just beginning to be realized by the public that these ballot coupons cut from The Evening World have a money value. Indeed they are of increasing value day by day, as a means of free entertainment for Coney Island visitors.

Some are good for one day, others for other days and many for any day after every day.

For instance, the lady presenting an Evening World ballot will be admitted to H. A. Bradwell's "The Deluge in the Time of Noah," to-day or Friday.

Any person voting an Evening World ballot for King Carnival at George C.

Premiums for Voting Coupons.

LUNA PARK will give ladies a free ride through the Old Mill for a blank Voting Coupon from The Evening World to-day and Wednesday. On Thursday and Friday The Evening World Voting Coupons will be good for ladies on the "Chute the Chutes" in Luna Park. DON'T FILL OUT COUPONS. Vote them blank.

THE BOSTOCK ANIMAL ARENA Every person purchasing an ordinary admission to the Bostock Animal Arena, in DREAMLAND, or at Surf Avenue Entrance, will be given a reserved seat free upon voting an Evening World Carnival Coupon. This offer is good to-day, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

STEEPLECHASE PARK will admit any person to-day, provided said person will cast a vote for a candidate. Vote for your choice. GOOD ALSO NEXT FRIDAY.

THE DELUGE will admit ladies free to-day and Friday when voting for a candidate. Cut coupon from Evening World and see "The Deluge in the Time of Noah," vote for your choice. GOOD ALSO NEXT FRIDAY.

SEA BEACH RINK will give any person a free admission to the largest roller skating rink in the world, provided said person casts a vote for a candidate. Vote must be dropped in Sea Beach Roller Skating Rink Voting Booth. Good any day.

THE "ROUGH RIDER," Jones Walk and the Bowery, will give any lady a free ride upon the casting of a vote for a candidate. Good only to-day and Friday of this week. Everybody knows about the thrilling ride of "The Rough Rider."

Voting Coupons as Passes.

At Luna Park ladies bringing a blank Evening World ballot to-morrow may ride free through "The Tunnel" and around the "Maze" without any extra cost to Luna Park. The ride on "Shoot the Chutes" on Thursday, "Leave the Ballin' Blank" on Friday, "The Deluge" on Saturday, and at the Bostock Animal Arena a reserved seat will be given to-day, to-morrow, Thursday or Friday to every person who has a blank Evening World ballot ticket.

Everyone is invited to the Bowery and the Avenue of the Dreamland entrance.

A ballot coupon admits any one to the Sea Beach Palace Roller Skating Rink and the Bowery.

Some clever ones have discovered that by cutting out the ballot from The Evening World they can go down to Coney Island and use the ballot coupon to enter the place and for that day, can get a whole day's entertainment absolutely free of cost save their carfare.

>Returns Flashed on Screen.

At Econopony Brothers' Moving Picture Show, Bowery and Henderson's Walk, special slides have been made showing the vote as it stands at the time of the election, and also the canvases between the numbers on the programme. Thus, those who visit this fine free exhibition of man's greatest achievement, the highest electricity will be kept informed of the progress of the vote in the most novel election in history. The Messrs. Econopony have arranged for a unique and moving picture of the recent Olympic games at Athens, Greece, showing the athletes of the world in their respective feats, just as they are performed in the contests for the olympic medal.

The friends of Policeman Martin Sheridan will see their favorite in the act of throwing the discus, and the great American athlete, who has won the world championship to Sheridan in the particularly Greek sport. All the American champions, the men who brought back the laurels to America, the American Athletic Association, will be shown in the act of breaking the chains of the rest of the world, and the strength of the world.

The contract has been awarded to Pain for the nightly fireworks display at the Concourse and Boulevard, where the shorter grand stands will be erected for the summer.

Visitors Pain has promised to make it the finest pyrotechnical display ever seen here. The first display will be given immediately following the coronation of King of the King of Carnival, and the Bearcats may use what has fallen his choice for the queen at the grand ball in the great ballroom at Feltman's, Monday evening, Sept. 17.

Jolly Regains Lead.

The election contest to determine who shall be Prince Plenty, King of the Mardi Gras Carnival, waxes warm as the carnival progresses.

Phil Jolly is in ahead of Brewer Raub in to-day's voting, and leads him by 610 votes, as shown in the table above. At the same time Fernand Akaou, who is the new King of the ladies who visit the Sea Beach Roller Skating Rink, where an Evening World ballot is a good ticket of admission every day, added almost

3 Rooms at $75 5 Rooms at $150

CAT ROBS JOSS AND STARTS A MUTINY

Chinese Sailors Demand Feiline's Nine Lives in Revenge, but Roberts Saves All.

2,000 to his vote, and is third, with 6,000.

Charles L. Feltman, Joe Huber, Senator Reynolds and Mo Levy are all in a bunch, not far behind Mr. Akoun.

It is said that the managers of the carnival for each of the seven days back with the purpose of depositing a dead ballot at a near day.

Montaine is in question, what fair fair is to come, and the election of the Carnaval to sit beside him on the throne and be the Queen is of rally as much interest than is the election of King.

On July 28, in the Indian Ocean, the ship ran into a typhoon, and the crew neglected to burn joss sticks at the altar in the forecastle.

They were very angry, they argued, and it would be a sin to waste the money.

"I am for Phil Jolly for King," said Miss Hayward, "and I'm doing all I can to help get him elected."

"I am for the naming of our King for the biggest and grandest Mardi Gras festival ever held in America. It would be Senator Patrick H. McCarran," declared Miss Martens.

"Dark Horse" Under Cover.

The mystery of the Luna Park "dark horse" still locked in Fred Thompson's heart. No one can tell exactly who he is, his Queen will be Miss Grace Van Buskirk, the clever little olive-eyed young woman who sits in the entrance, who has established her right to the title as champion ticket seller, having sold 17,000 separate pastebands and gathered in $17,000 on the single day.

Others think the "dark horse" is a tamer and trainer of bears.

Mr. Roberts, who owns the cat, declined to surrender his pet, and the crew went to Capt. Francis McDonald, who took the cat, and the nine lives were surrendered to him.

The outrages on the boat were heavy.

That night the ship's cat wandered

out into the Chinese port.

When the crew saw the cat, they were angry, and the sailors were very angry.

They were very angry, they argued,

and it would be a sin to waste the money.

"I am for Phil Jolly for King," said Miss Hayward, "and I'm doing all I can to help get him elected."

"I am for the naming of our King for the biggest and grandest Mardi Gras festival ever held in America. It would be Senator Patrick H. McCarran," declared Miss Martens.

"Dark Horse" Under Cover.

The mystery of the Luna Park "dark horse" still locked in Fred Thompson's heart. No one can tell exactly who he is, his Queen will be Miss Grace Van Buskirk, the clever little olive-eyed young woman who sits in the entrance, who has established her right to the title as champion ticket seller, having sold 17,000 separate pastebands and gathered in $17,000 on the single day.

Others think the "dark horse" is a tamer and trainer of bears.

Mr. Roberts, who owns the cat, declined to surrender his pet, and the crew went to Capt. Francis McDonald, who took the cat, and the nine lives were surrendered to him.

The outrages on the boat were heavy.

That night the ship's cat wandered

out into the Chinese port.

When the crew saw the cat, they were angry, and the sailors were very angry.

They were very angry, they argued,

and it would be a sin to waste the money.

"I am for Phil Jolly for King," said Miss Hayward, "and I'm doing all I can to help get him elected."

"I am for the naming of our King for the biggest and grandest Mardi Gras festival ever held in America. It would be Senator Patrick H. McCarran," declared Miss Martens.

"Dark Horse" Under Cover.

The mystery of the Luna Park "dark horse" still locked in Fred Thompson's heart. No one can tell exactly who he is, his Queen will be Miss Grace Van Buskirk, the clever little olive-eyed young woman who sits in the entrance, who has established her right to the title as champion ticket seller, having sold 17,000 separate pastebands and gathered in $17,000 on the single day.

Others think the "dark horse" is a tamer and trainer of bears.

Mr. Roberts, who owns the cat, declined to surrender his pet, and the crew went to Capt. Francis McDonald, who took the cat, and the nine lives were surrendered to him.

The outrages on the boat were heavy.

That night the ship's cat wandered

out into the Chinese port.

When the crew saw the cat, they were angry, and the sailors were very angry.

They were very angry, they argued,

and it would be a sin to waste the money.

"I am for Phil Jolly for King," said Miss Hayward, "and I'm doing all I can to help get him elected."

"I am for the naming of our King for the biggest and grandest Mardi Gras festival ever held in America. It would be Senator Patrick H. McCarran," declared Miss Martens.

"Dark Horse" Under Cover.

The mystery of the Luna Park "dark horse" still locked in Fred Thompson's heart. No one can tell exactly who he is, his Queen will be Miss Grace Van Buskirk, the clever little olive-eyed young woman who sits in the entrance, who has established her right to the title as champion ticket seller, having sold 17,000 separate pastebands and gathered in $17,000 on the single day.

Others think the "dark horse" is a tamer and trainer of bears.

Mr. Roberts, who owns the cat, declined to surrender his pet, and the crew went to Capt. Francis McDonald, who took the cat, and the nine lives were surrendered to him.

The outrages on the boat were heavy.

That night the ship's cat wandered

out into the Chinese port.

When the crew saw the cat, they were angry, and the sailors were very angry.

They were very angry, they argued,

and it would be a sin to waste the money.

"I am for Phil Jolly for King," said Miss Hayward, "and I'm doing all I can to help get him elected."

"I am for the naming of our King for the biggest and grandest Mardi Gras festival ever held in America. It would be Senator Patrick H. McCarran," declared Miss Martens.

"Dark Horse" Under Cover.

The mystery of the Luna Park "dark horse" still locked in Fred Thompson's heart. No one can tell exactly who he is, his Queen will be Miss Grace Van Buskirk, the clever little olive-eyed young woman who sits in the entrance, who has established her right to the title as champion ticket seller, having sold 17,000 separate pastebands and gathered in $17,000 on the single day.

Others think the "dark horse" is a tamer and trainer of bears.

Mr. Roberts, who owns the cat, declined to surrender his pet, and the crew went to Capt. Francis McDonald, who took the cat, and the nine lives were surrendered to him.

The outrages on the boat were heavy.

That night the ship's cat wandered

out into the Chinese port.

When the crew saw the cat, they were angry, and the sailors were very angry.

They were very angry, they argued,

and it would be a sin to waste the money.

"I am for Phil Jolly for King," said Miss Hayward, "and I'm doing all I can to help get him elected."

"I am for the naming of our King for the biggest and grandest Mardi Gras festival ever held in America. It would be Senator Patrick H. McCarran," declared Miss Martens.

"Dark Horse" Under Cover.

The mystery of the Luna Park "dark horse" still locked in Fred Thompson's heart. No one can tell exactly who he